På besøk etter 45 år

Tidligere rasierer av Odd Bjerkland og Vasiliy Rjabov

Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Gulbrandson
Wed at East Freeborn

Christine Ann Harty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Harty, 161 Lakewood Ave, and James Howard Gulbrandson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gulbrandson, H1, were wed at 9 pm. June 5 by Rev. Evans J. Knutson performed the double ring ceremony at East Freeborn Lutheran Church.

The bride wore a white sheen gown. The Norwegain lace was fashioned with a Victorian yoke of lace bordered in seed pearl. The dress had a high ruffled collar. Fitted lace sleeves with pearl accent and a ruffle on the cuff. The fitted waistline was decorated with ribbons and the floor length skirt had a wide train. The finance of Notthingham lace coming into the chapel length train.

The veil was fingertip length with Nottingham lace to match the dress. The flowers were a cascade of pink sweethearts, a baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Michele Frystad was the maid of honor and bride's attendant. The bride's attendent was the bride, Albert Lee. Joan Harty, sister-in-law of the bride, was her godmother. Kathleen Spellman, of 131 9th St. was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were three of Albert Lee's friends. These were the attendants.

The bridal bouquet was light pink spagetti strap skeleton gowns. The bridesmaids wore pink corded rose necklaces, given by the bride. The bridesmaids wore white flowers.

The wedding was a simple one. The groom was Richard Harty, bride's brother. The bride was the bride, Albert Lee. The groom was the groom, Albert Lee. The bride was the bride, Albert Lee. The groom was the groom, Albert Lee. The bride was the bride, Albert Lee.

The bride was the bride, Albert Lee. The groom was the groom, Albert Lee. The bride was the bride, Albert Lee. The groom was the groom, Albert Lee. The bride was the bride, Albert Lee.

Cheryl Mattson, sister of the bride, Albert Lee, was the maid of honor. Shawn Okelbo, Iowa, the bride's brother, sat at the head table. Kim Hammer, all of A was there.

Gift card was from Albert Lee, the groom. A gift card was from Albert Lee, the groom. A gift card was from Albert Lee, the groom. A gift card was from Albert Lee, the groom. A gift card was from Albert Lee, the groom.

The bride is a 1975 grad. from Albert Lee High School. He graduated from Albert Lee Vocational Technical School.

The groom is a 1975 grad. from Albert Lee High School. He graduated from Albert Lee Vocational Technical School.

He is employed as a mechanic at Interlaken Tracks. Albert Lee.